February 2016

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

I hope everyone has gotten plowed/shoveled out from the huge snow by now and that everyone stayed safe and warm during the storm. Wouldn't it be nice if this was the last of the snow for the winter! One can only hope! Meanwhile, we have an amazing array of activities coming up in the next couple of months and I hope you will all put these events on your calendars. Registration and info forms are included in the newsletter.

- “Book Bash” Luncheon Meeting – Sat, Feb 13th at 11:30 at Union Jack’s
- Temple Isaiah Tour – Sunday, Feb 21st at 1PM – Fulton
- New/prospective member Orientation – Thurs, Feb 25th at 7PM, Miller Library
- Branch Meeting – Tuesday, March 8th, 7PM - guest speaker, Zakiah Tomlinson – “From Legos to the International Space Station: My Life in Robotics”
- Tour of Turkish Mosque – Saturday, March 19th – more info to come
- Fashion Show – Saturday, April 16th – Vantage House, Columbia
- AAUW State Convention – Saturday, April 30th – HCC Kittleman Room

In addition, we continue to have our Dining Out, Lunch Bunch, Great Decisions, Book Group, and numerous committee meetings. Thanks again to all the volunteer VP’s and Chairs who make it all possible!

Do you realize that as a Howard County Branch member, you are also a member of the National AAUW? Our National AAUW is at the forefront of ensuring equity and equality for women, but in order to continue to have a strong voice, they must have the funds to do it. They are running a two-year Charting the Course campaign which aims to raise $1 million in unrestricted funds to ensure that AAUW is well prepared to meet the issues facing us today and into the future. These unrestricted funds will be used wherever the need is greatest, empowering women in our communities, schools, workplaces, and positions of leadership. If you are able to support this campaign do so via <http://www.aauw.org/chartingthecourse/support/> Our local fundraisers support our local scholarship winners, but AAUW National supports all women.

I look forward to seeing many of you at our upcoming events!

Bea Dane, President

Membership

Please welcome the following 3 new members to AAUW Howard County: Mary Ann Crosby, Pavanjit Sawhney, Suzanne Soules. Including our new members, our current paid membership for this year is 112 members.

Sources of prospective members range from referrals from branch members, our website, display tables at events like Diversity and LWV Legislative Luncheon, and women who approach our members who volunteering in the community. We have found that Great Decisions is a great draw for prospective members.

We emailed every member the invitation flyer to the Feb 25th Introduction to AAUW HC for new and prospective members. The flyer is attached.

PLEASE share it with a friend or who might be interested in learning about what our branch has to offer its members.

Each new member receives a Member Participation Questionnaire that requests her interest in our committees and interest groups. The questionnaire is attached for your use.

PLEASE wear your name tags to branch meetings, AAUW HC Diversity Events and when you are representing AAUW HC as a volunteer in the community.

Upcoming Events & Membership News

From Fashion Show Committee:

Mark your calendars for the 2016 fabulous fashion show on Saturday, April 16th.

This will be held at Vantage House in Columbia, using Lord & Taylor for the outfits, and will start at 1:00 PM. Tickets will be sent to all members in early March, but please remember, if you are unable to make it to the show, buy your tickets anyway as this show is our largest Philanthropy event and all funds go to our scholarship program!!

The fun accessory sale will begin at 12:30, this year we will have NEW fashion jewelry and scarves along with donated handbags and accessories from our members. If you have any high quality, barely worn bags or necklaces you want to donate, please let me know. We are starting our model search, all members (NEW members please note) if you want to model, let me know. It is a lot of fun and does not matter age or size! We have enough teens and kids already on board.

Thanks in advance for your support,

From State Convention Local Arrangements Committee:

“INSPIRING ACCESS TO SUCCESS”

AAUW MARYLAND STATE CONVENTION

Saturday, April 30, 2016

Mark your calendar for the AAUW Maryland State Convention on Saturday, April 30. The Howard County branch will host this one day event that brings together members of all AAUW branches in Maryland. The day will include speakers on AAUW's research report "Solving the Equation," news from AAUW national headquarters and time to share program and membership ideas. The state convention is always energizing and informative. If you have never attended one, this is the one to attend – right in your own county!

The convention will be held in the Kittleman Room in Duncan Hall, on the Howard Community College campus. Cost per person is $45.00 including all program materials, buffet breakfast and lunch. Register by April 1; after that date, the registration fee increases to $50.00. Now is a good time, while you are reading this note, to complete the attached form and mail with your check, made payable to "AAUW Maryland," to Karen Tang. Her address is on the form.

The Local Arrangements Committee will need help during the week before the convention, April 23 – 29, and on the day of the event. Contact Diane Roca, Committee Chair, at 410-964-3523 or ordbroca@comcast.net. Things to be done: assemble convention program pages in binders, assemble treat bags, set up in the Kittleman Room on Friday, April 29 at HCC, and help with registration on the day of the convention.

Diversity Committee News

FY 2016 - 2017 Theme: A JOURNEY OF DISCOVERY: THE MIDDLE EAST

Explore, Learn & Understand the Cultures of the Middle East and the Religions of Islam and Judaism

The committee proposes to facilitate exposure and education on the region of the world that is so little known and misunderstood by many Americans. We are not proposing discussions on extremism, religion or politics of the region as portrayed on daily news, but focus on the cultures of the Middle East to foster a greater understanding by educating ourselves. We want to provide an opportunity to experience the cultural nuances of the Middle East, particularly Turkey and Israel.

All the countries and cultures of the Middle East are represented in Howard County. We celebrate the diversity in our county, however our Muslim neighbors in particular are experiencing negative backlash in our current climate of fear of Muslims. Jews and other ethnic groups have had similar historical experiences due largely to lack of exposure, experience, interaction and misunderstanding. With that in mind, we are offering a tremendous opportunity to experience first hand the cultures of the Middle East with our events planned for this year.

TOURS:

Advocacy/Public Policy News

League of Women Voters' Legislative Luncheon

On January 9th, AAUW partnered with the League of Women Voters for the annual Legislative Lunch. AAUW had a record number of participants – 23. We enjoyed wide selections of delicious food and then listened to the state and county level legislators discuss current issues, such as the environment, open spaces, etc.. It was a pleasure to meet and talk with my state Senator, Ed Kasemeyer and to meet Delegate Terri Hill for the first time. I also enjoyed seeing former delegate Liz Bobo, a long-time member of our branch.

We will be working closely with the League of Women Voters throughout the year, focusing on voter registration and candidates' forums. This is a great chance for you to contribute your time to AAUW Howard County. It is not a long-term commitment, but usually a one-day commitment. We already have had volunteers helping out at River Hill and Atholton High Schools, which netted 184 completed voter registration forms.

Keep in mind that we will also be working with LWV on the pollster project, where volunteers check out various polling places to see that they are following the laws and regulations. You will hear more about this. If you have questions or would like to volunteer, contact Jennifer Ingram, Advocacy Committee, at phone 410-740-4276 or jenniferingram@comcast.net.

Maryland Legislative Agenda For Women (MLAW)

The MLAW Board of Directors identified issues that will comprise the MLAW Legislative Agenda 2016. The issues selected are listed below and described in more detail on our website.

- *Equal Pay for Equal Work
- *Fair Scheduling Act of 2016
- *Maryland Healthy Working Families Act
- *Stalking, Harassment, Misuse of Electronic Communication or Interactive Computer Service
- *Rape Survivor Family Protection Act
- *Expansion of Maryland Vacating Convictions Law for Survivors of Human Trafficking
- *Family and Medical Leave Act Insurance Program

The most powerful advocacy tool for the Agenda is your signature as a supporter. Organizations and individuals are invited to sign on as a supporter of the 2016 Agenda. We also encourage you to invite your friends and colleagues to sign on. A list of supporters will be attached to the document before it is distributed to legislators and the public, as well as included on our website. The document will be released at our Legislative Reception and Briefing and will be distributed to all legislators.

Education News

Education VP, Amy Robinson, and her committee are currently working with Howard Community College (HCC) to obtain candidates for our transfer and NCCWSL scholarships. Upcoming events also include our participation in Girl Power at APL on March 6th, and the STEMFestival at HCC on June 5th. Another new initiative being worked with HCC is for a Reading/Writing event. If you are interested in volunteering for an event, or joining this important committee, contact Amy amymcrobinson@gmail.com

The Reader's Group meets on the second Thursday of every other month, starting with July, at the East Columbia Branch Library Fifty-Plus Center Card Room. Meeting time is 11AM. Those interested may go out to lunch afterward. The March meeting is on March 10th and the book is: A THOUSAND HILLS TO HEAVEN – nonfiction by Josh Ruxin. Facilitator: Barbara Parker. If you are interested in joining the group, please contact Lorraine Trof at lmerdon@verizon.net or Doris Raytkwitch at dwhitespring@verizon.net

Personal Educational Development is important for our members. Member Nancy Bienia has sent information on an educational opportunity for anyone interested.

A Hidden Jewel In Columbia

When I retired, I missed the challenging work and the social interaction with my co-workers. A friend told me about the Osher Life Time Learning Institute at Johns Hopkins University here in Columbia. I had never heard about it. Osher is a community of retired professionals who love learning and want to remain socially active. After one semester I was hooked on the exciting classes in art, history, culture and religion to name a few. I have met a whole new group of friends and couldn't be happier.

Doctors and scientists tell us that the key to a healthy and happy retirement is staying intellectually and socially active. The Osher program provides all of this including field trips (last year we went to the Supreme Court and the Goddard Space Flight Center), guest lunch time speakers and cruises. Classes are during the day here in Columbia and in the Roland Park area of Baltimore. For more information on the Spring classes here is the website www.osher.jhu.edu. Please feel free to call me at 410-997-9158 if you have any questions.
