February 2026

Message from your Co-Presidents

Hello Members and Friends,
Snow! Well, it is winter! We hope you have not had any weather-related problems.
Please be careful during these frigid days of icy spots where a fall could ruin your day.
We have great events on the calendar for the months ahead, starting with our annual Book Bash, on Saturday, February 7th. Susan Hailman has put together a good lineup of presenters and books centered around the theme of "We Need Another (S)hero", and Beth is going to have you search your memory for the answers to women-related trivia questions. Prizes will be given.

Painting at Pinot's Palette will boost our scholarship fund. Please register now for Sunday, February 22, 2026 at 2 pm at <https://www.pinotspalette.com/ellicottcity/event/862978>. It is important to let them know you are with AAUW so that we will receive a portion of the proceeds. Invite a friend or family member! Registration caps at 34 seats. Don't miss out.

We welcome new member, Samedra Carter. She is joining this month and plans to attend the Book Bash. Learn a little more about her under Membership notes.

Included in this month's newsletter are highlights from the AAUW MD Winter Meeting, Public Policy, and the Regional Conference that will take place in September.

Please read the newsletter for all the activities we have going on and pay particular attention to the calendar, so you don't miss out on those things of interest. If you have suggestions for ways we might be of service to women in the community, or a social activity you would like to see happen, please let Beth or me know. We are always open to new ideas.

See you in February - Beth Hayden & Suzanne Soules, Co-Presidents

February Branch Meeting

The Book Bash We Need Another (S)hero

Saturday, February 7
11:30 AM – 2:00 PM
Union Jack's Restaurant
Mall at Columbia

PROGRAM

Only 1 week left to RSVP for our February 7 Book Bash!
Contact Susan Hailman, Program VP, by February 4. shailman@comcast.net

What do Eleanor Roosevelt and Dolly Parton have in common? What was the biggest challenge Jacinda Ardern faced as New Zealand's prime minister? How did a bureaucrat save the Peace Corps at a critical juncture? How did Jessica Mitford and Hedy Lamarr act as political disruptors? Why are writers as different as Maya Angelou and Mel Robbins (S)heroes?

Our (S)heroes will range from first ladies and prime ministers to spies, authors, activists and pop stars. We'll learn more about women we thought we knew and discover the heroism of women we might never have known. Food for thought for all of us in these difficult times!

We'll order individually from Union Jack's menu, compete in a little trivia contest, offer a book swap and there will be a trivia game with prizes. Feel free to bring a friend. We need to know you're coming by February 4 so Union Jack's can plan seating.

TRIVIA GAME and PRIZES

Try to guess the "Sheroes" and you could win a prize!

BOOK SWAP

A favorite part of Book Bash! Bring a book to describe briefly and give away.

COLLECTING FOOD FOR HCC FOOD PANTRY

Please remember to bring non-perishables for the Howard Community College Fueling Dragons Food Pantry! Many students have increased need for food as budgets tighten!

Membership

Please welcome new member Samedra Carter. She plans on joining us for the Book Bash. Here is her introduction of herself.

My name is Samedra Carter. I was born in Harrisburg, Virginia, but I consider Maryland as home, having lived in Maryland the majority of my life. Currently I work at the Law Department in the city of Baltimore and am a non-traditional student taking classes at Morgan State University.

I identify as a social activist, womanist, and feminist. I am deeply committed to justice for women and believe that women deserve to be heard and seen. My hobbies include swimming, reading, skating, and writing. I am interested in exploring book binding and pottery very soon.

I am a very proud and active auntie. Aside from my personal life, I value community and enjoy being amongst like-minded women and look forward to meeting and connecting with other women. I look forward to connecting, building, and growing with other women through this group.

We are happy to have Samedra join our membership and look forward to her participation.

Suzanne Soules, Membership VP

Why Join AAUW?

January is Mental Wellness Month and a perfect time to join our AAUW Howard County Branch for a great social connection that is critical for mental well-being. According to the National Institute on Aging, a connection to others is critical particularly for many older adults to avoid experiencing social isolation and loneliness, which can lead to poor health, cognitive decline and depression. Of course, you can join us any time at <https://howardcounty-md.aauw.net/>.
